Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 10-12, 17-18, 21 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Cain et al. (US Pat. 6,184,009).

US'009 teaches the preparation of conjugated linoleic acids wherein a conjugated linoleic acid ester is hydrolyzed in the presence of an enzyme. Wherein the temperature used, enzymes, and percent conversion reads on the instant invention. See col. 2, line 56; examples 8, 18-20.

Art Unit: 1621

3. Claims 10-20 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being clearly anticipated by Sih et al. (US Pat. 6,316,645).

US'645 teaches the preparation of conjugated linoleic acids wherein a conjugated linoleic acid ester is hydrolyzed in the presence of an enzyme. Wherein the temperature used and enzymes read on the instant invention. See col. 2, lines 41-43; col. 5, lines 13-21; examples 2, 4.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 22-24 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
